Module level timetable - indicate the timing of the teaching sessions from the previous teaching year:

Health Ethic and Law: 03.00-05.00 p.m., Tuesday, 1st semester

Pedagogic/teaching methodology:

Scheduled learning includes lecturers, discussion, and seminars in groups.

Lecturer presents the teaching materials with LCD and whiteboard. The students are divided into small groups. Each group has to discuss the topic determined by the lecturer and present the results to the class.

Independent learning includes hours engaged with essential reading, assignment preparation and completion and self-directed study. Students are provided with access to essential and supplementary learning via email or e-learning (AULA) and whiteboard.

Assessments used:

There are three types of examination:

1. Middle examination (40%)
2. Final examination (50%)
3. Structured assignment (10%)

Each examination takes 100 minutes includes essays. The examination assesses the students' knowledge and understanding and all learning outcomes of the module. Structured assignment is given by writing a paper then the students present it.
